

Ponds, Rivers and Poultry

An open meeting to discuss the impact of intensive poultry production in Powys on our freshwater ecosystems

Saturday 29th October 10.00 am to 3.30 pm
Llanigon Village Hall (near Hay on Wye)

Morning Session: evidence and regulation

Professor Steve Ormerod

CARDIFF UNIVERSITY: ORGANISMS & ENVIRONMENT
CHAIR OF RSPB COUNCIL and leading expert in freshwater ecosystems

Richard Nines

NATURAL RESOURCES WALES
Head of Ecosystems, Planning and Partnerships: North and Mid-Wales

Julian Jones

RADNORSHIRE WILDLIFE TRUST
Director

Kate Adams

WYE AND USK FOUNDATION
Head of Land Use

Afternoon Session: public participation and monitoring

Peter Powell

SEVERN RIVERS TRUST
Welsh Uplands and Shropshire Middle Severn Catchment Officer

Barbara Brown

OPAL Open Air Laboratories

Viv Geen

COUNTRYSIDE RESTORATION TRUST
Wildlife Monitoring Officer

Event organised by:

Brecon and Radnor Branch of the Campaign for the Protection of Rural Wales

Cost includes refreshment and buffet lunch

£5.00 per person for CPRW members,

£7.50 for non-members

Pay at the door

For further information or to book telephone 01874 676225

Registered charity number 239899